English Activities 11th Grade

Monday, 22nd. Grammar: Complex sentences:

A clause is a group of words that has both a subject and a predicate.

Complex Sentence

A complex sentence has an independent clause and at least one dependent clause.

The Four Types of Sentence Structure:

A Complex Sentence. A complex sentence has an independent clause and at least one dependent clause. For example:

The human brain never stops working until you stand up to speak in public.

A Compound Sentence. A compound sentence has at least two independent clauses. For example:

I always wanted to be somebody, but I should have been more specific.

A Simple Sentence. A simple sentence has just one independent clause. For example:

Curiosity killed the cat.

A Compound-Complex Sentence. A compound-complex sentence has at least two independent clauses and at least one dependent clause. For example:

I stopped believing in Santa Claus when he asked for my autograph in a department store, but I still want to believe in him.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE "JOSEPH JOHN THOMSON"

Tuesday, 23rd – Modals

That's not new for you. However, you can read grammar part page 140 unit 7 part 2.

You have different modals, like will, may/might, could, shout/ought to... You can also use phrases: They're bound to

It's likely to...

Highly unlikely...

Do exercises 1, 2, 3 (page 74) and exercise 2 (page 141 unit 7)

Homework: Write a composition using the topics (page 76 exercise 1)

Wednesday, 24th – UNIT 8 The Law

Read exercise 1 page 78 and, say your opinion about the law (If you can't go to class, write a composition about it)

Then, you have the vocabulary. Do exercise 1 and 2.

<http://learnersdictionary.com/3000-words/topic/legal-english> (here you have some common words)

Homework: Do exercise 4 (page 77)

Thursday, 25th - Paraphrasing:

Expressing the same thing using different words.

There are often several ways one can say the same thing. The differences depend on the situation (register) or on which part of the sentence you wish to place most importance (emphasis). This can be achieved by using the passive voice, participle clauses and in certain situations, cleft sentences.

Now, go to page 140 (Read about grammar).

Try to do exercise 4 page 79.

Homework: Do you like LAW? Why?

NOTE: Homework will be received on Friday 26th at school.
